Use Case Definition For Windows Online Shipping App

1. The window opens to display a text box to enter a shipping weight
2. There are 4 radio buttons to determine the different rates for shipping in the US, to Latin America, or Canada.
3. The User selects a calculate button to calculate the total for shipping
4. Total shipping rate will be displayed next to the shipping total text
5. User can select a clear button next to the calculate button to clear the form for another entry